Theatre Applicants:

BA or BFA (Audition/Portfolio Review Required for the BFA)

There are two tracks in the theatre major that students can apply:

1. Bachelor of Arts, BA (does not require an audition/portfolio);
2. Bachelor of Fine Arts, BFA (audition or portfolio as part of the application review).

Prospective performance students can audition for the BFA program. Auditions and portfolio reviews will be offered on:

- November 16, 2013, 11:30 am
- January 26, 2014, 11:30 am
- March 27, 2014, 4:30 pm

Please contact Ashley Preston in the theatre department at 978.542.6290 or apreston@saalemstate.edu to schedule an appointment or if you have further questions.

Auditions

Student should prepare two contrasting monologues. The audition should be no more than two minutes in length. Students should also bring a current resume and headshot to their audition.

Prospective design/stage management/technical students can submit a digital portfolio to the theatre department for review by November 16. All digital portfolios should be sent as a PDF or PowerPoint presentation to apreston@saalemstate.edu.

Please note: as the performance BFA applicants need to attend one of the auditions, the design/stage management/technical applicants will submit their portfolio and schedule an interview.

Portfolio

Suggestions on items that you could include in your portfolio:

- photos of design or technical work
- drafting or drawings of their designs
- light plots and/or suggestions of cues
- concept/point of view and/or research
- renderings/sketches of costume designs
- prompt book for stage managers
- sound plots or list of sound cues for a production
